Archbishop of Canterbury to lead first national virtual Church of England service on the Radio

The Archbishop of Canterbury Justin Welby is to lead a national broadcast as the Church of England, becoming a “different sort of church” in the face of the coronavirus crisis.

The service, including prayers, hymns and a short sermon, will be broadcast online by the Church of England and broadcast on BBC Radio 4's Sunday Worship and 39 local BBC radio stations this Sunday as congregations across the country find new ways of sharing worship together after public church services were put on hold.

All local radio stations in England at 8am and will premier online at 9am on Sunday (<https://www.facebook.com/thechurchofengland>) .
